

POLS 1600 – Introduction to International Politics

Fall 2021

MWF 10:00-10:50 am, Spring Hall 141

Professor Matthew Nanes – matthew.nanes@slu.edu

Office Hours: Mondays 11-12 and by appointment

Course Description and Goals:

This class introduces students to the systematic study of international politics. Our overarching question is how actors – countries, NGOs, multi-national corporations, international organizations, etc. – interact with one another in the modern world. We will focus on the way that anarchy in the international system, or the absence of a “world government,” shapes these interactions. We will explore the foreign policies of several world powers and apply both classic and innovative theories to contemporary events.

The class is aimed towards students with minimal background in political science coursework but a healthy interest in international politics. There are no prerequisites, and I encourage students of all majors to enroll.

By the end of the course, students will be able to:

- Identify key actors in the international system
- Differentiate between domestic politics and international politics, and especially the way that anarchy in the international system causes actors to behave differently
- Apply existing theories of politics to contemporary events in order to (a) explain what has already happened, and (b) predict what might happen next
- Effectively communicate complex ideas about politics verbally and in writing

Attendance Policy:

Attendance and active participation are expected at every class session. Throughout the semester, you will participate in activities, simulations, discussions, and short written assignments. If you are absent for a reason that is both unforeseeable and unavoidable, you will be allowed to make up the assignment if possible, otherwise you will be exempt from the grade. Missed assignments due to unexcused absences will receive a 0.

If you miss a class, please be in touch as soon as it is feasible so we can make the necessary arrangements. My goal is to be reasonable and accommodating.

Grading and Assignments:

The assignments evaluate you based on the course goals listed above, with an emphasis on a) your understanding of concepts related to international politics, b) your ability to explain, analyze, and solve current events in international politics, and c) your communication of these items clearly and effectively.

1. READING QUESTIONS – 15%. These take-home assignments are designed to ensure that you have completed the assigned reading and are prepared for class. They are open-book, but you must work alone. Your responses are due before the start of class in which we discuss the relevant reading, and they cannot be turned in late. If you miss an assignment due to an excused absence, you will be exempt from the grade.
2. CLASS PARTICIPATION – 15%. All students are expected to contribute to in-class discussions in a thoughtful manner. Your performance on the two debates as well as all in-class activities is included in this category.

3. HOMEWORK – 20%. Assigned throughout the semester. Some are listed on the syllabus; others will be announced in class. The write-up of your debate argument is included in this category.
4. MIDTERM EXAM – 25%. In class, Monday October 18th.
5. FINAL EXAM – 25%. Date TBA.

I will convert your numeric grades to a letter course grade using this scale:

A	93-100	B+	87-89	C+	77-79	D	60-70
A-	90-92	B	83-86	C	73-76	F	below 60
		B-	80-82	C-	70-72

Readings and Resources:

Textbook: Frieden, Lake, and Schultz, World Politics: Interests, Interactions, Institutions. 4th Edition. W.W. Norton, 2018.

Feel free to purchase a used copy of the book; we will NOT be using the CD or online content which require separate activation. Do not buy an older edition of the book.

Additional readings are either linked directly from this syllabus or will be available on Canvas.

Finally, you should keep up with the news in world politics throughout the semester (and hopefully beyond) by regularly reading one or more of the following newspapers:

- New York Times
- Wall Street Journal
- Washington Post
- The Economist
- Foreign Affairs
- BBC.com

Academic Integrity:

I take academic integrity very seriously. I intend to make the guidelines for each assignment clear. If you are not sure what is allowed on an assignment, you should contact me for clarification. Unless I specify otherwise, assignments should be completed on your own with no input from anyone else. Any violation of academic integrity will result in an automatic F in the class.

You should familiarize yourself with the university's general guidelines on academic integrity found here: <http://www.slu.edu/arts-and-sciences/student-resources/academic-honesty.php>

Students with Disabilities

Students with a documented disability who wish to request academic accommodations are encouraged to contact Disability Services to discuss accommodation requests and eligibility requirements. Please visit the Office of Disability Services website (<http://www.slu.edu/life-at-slu/student-success-center/disability-services>) for details. Please also contact me as soon as possible if you wish to discuss any of these options.

Title IX

SLU requires me to report certain types of information you discuss with me to the university's Title IX coordinator. You can find details about SLU's policy here: https://www.slu.edu/provost/faculty-affairs/teaching-resources-for-faculty/course-syllabus-information/syllabus-statements/syllabus-stmt\_title-ix.docx

Student Success Center

“In recognition that people learn in a variety of ways and that learning is influenced by multiple factors (e.g., prior experience, study skills, learning disability), resources to support student success are available on campus. The Student Success Center assists students with academic-related services and is located in the Busch Student Center (Suite, 331). Students can visit the Student Success Center to learn more about tutoring services, university writing services, disability services, and academic coaching.”

University Writing Services

“Students are encouraged to take advantage of University Writing Services in the Student Success Center; getting feedback benefits writers at all skill levels. Trained writing consultants can help with writing projects, multimedia projects, and oral presentations. University Writing Services offers one-on-one consultations that address everything from brainstorming and developing ideas to crafting strong sentences and documenting sources. For more information, visit the Student Success Center or call the Student Success Center at 314-977-3484.”

Basic Needs Security

“Students in personal or academic distress and/or who may be specifically experiencing challenges such as securing food or difficulty navigating campus resources, and who believe this may affect their performance in the course, are encouraged to contact the Dean of Students Office (deanofstudents@slu.edu or 314-977-9378) for support. Furthermore, please notify the instructor if you are comfortable in doing so, as this will enable them to assist you with finding the resources you may need.”
