INTERNATIONAL NEWS

Visiting Scholar at Saint Louis University: Crystal Dieleman

Saint Louis University had the honor of hosting Crystal Dieleman, PhD, OT Reg(NS) from Dalhousie University, as a visiting scholar during the fall of 2018. SLU students and faculty were fortunate to hear her perspectives shared with a variety of OT and Criminology classes and at Missouri Occupational Therapy Association and SLU Health Criminology Symposium events. Her exploration of humanistic perspectives on occupation and the context of the Canadian prison system provoked rich discussion.

Canadian OT Conference JBOT Meetings

JBOT is meeting in Canada! The CAOT National Conferences will be held in Niagara Falls, ON May 29-June 1, 2019. Similar to past JBOT meetings, we will be convening practitioners there to discuss international collaboration on JBOT advocacy networking. Details are forming. Contact Lisa Jaegers, Ljaegers@slu.edu for more info.

JBOT AROUND THE U.S.

Active Projects

University of St. Augustine, San Marcos California Campus, Susan MacDermott, OTD, OTR/L

Since Fall, 2016 over 150 FW Level I students have been collaborating with CoreCivic Ocean View Facility in San Diego, CA (previously Correctional Alternatives Inc.) In a fieldwork experience embedded within the “Clinical Applications of Occupational Therapy in Psychosocial and Community Settings” course they completed an interview, COPM, and one additional assessment (Allen’s Cognitive Level Screen and Adolescent/ Adult Sensory Profile) with a resident. The students then return the following week and deliver general recommendations regarding programming, environment, and transition planning to the case managers.

The first entry level OTD student will start their capstone experience exploring “Identifying Opportunities for the Role of OT in a Correctional Facility” in April, 2019 where they will be conducting a needs assessment at the facility with a focus on program development. A 2nd OTD student will follow this capstone in August, 2019-December, 2019 to continue program development and implementation.

Pacific University, School of Occupational Therapy, John A. White, Jr., Ph.D., FAOTA, OTR/L

Dr. White reports having two Doctoral Capstone students who will be working in Forensicare in Melbourne. One of their projects is to work with Lorrae Mynnard to contribute to an OT in CJ scope of practice document.

Call For Papers

In January 2020, Annals of International Occupational Therapy will publish a special issue on JUSTICE BASED OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY. This issue will publish scholarly manuscripts based on original research that critically evaluates occupational therapy interventions for people within the criminal justice system. If you are engaged in clinical research, education and/or occupational justice initiatives with individuals in the criminal justice system you are encouraged to submit a manuscript.

Please submit inquiries to the Guest Editor of the Special Issue: Jaime Phillip Muñoz, PhD (munoz@duq.edu). All manuscript submissions are due on or before May 31, 2019 for a projected publication date of January 2020
